Sundays at 8:30 pm in Linehan Chapel

Dear Friends,

This is a super busy time of the semester! Finding time for everything that I want to do, and doing it as well as I would like to challenges me. I often wish I had more time!

I am especially grateful for the hour from 6:30-7:30 on Sunday evenings, when a Bible Study group organized by Senior Social Work major, Naomi Lima, meets in GAC 164. Each week, we gather together to pray and listen for God's word to each of us as we study passages from the book of Psalms.

This particular verse stuck in my memory this week: "Teach us to number our days, so that we can have a wise heart" (Psalm 90:12).

The psalm describes how human beings view time differently than God does: a thousand years for human beings might be just an evening for God. We know that as human beings our time on earth is not eternal, yet it is the place God has called us to live our lives. For us, growing in wisdom is a life-long task.

As we study and learn academically in preparation for our lives after Nazareth, may we also open our hearts to gain God's wisdom to "number our days" spiritually-making each day count by our living.

Blessings,
Alison
