Please sign in the Friendship Binder and kindly silence phones.

Today is Ecumenical Sunday, a day when we celebrate what God is doing through the many ecumenical agencies - local, regional, national and international - that make up the modern ecumenical movement. As we pray "that all may be one... that the world may believe" (John17:21), let us give thanks for the opportunity we have at Nazareth College to promote understanding and cooperation among Christians and others in our community.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Larissa Mitchell

In the darkness of winter,
as in the dark places of our lives,
a light shines forth.

We come with longing to seek God's presence.

The light of God's Love calls us,
reminding us of our essential unity
and our need for one another.

We come together with song and music to worship and celebrate God's love.

OPENING PRAYER

Reba Schmoyer

O God who welcomes all in love,
you have called us to be members of one body.
Join us with all those throughout history
and around the world
who have praised your name.

Give us courage and conviction that we may joyfully turn and follow you
into new adventures of faithful service,
led by the light that shines
through Jesus Christ our Savior.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME!

Protestant Worship is a place of belonging in Christian fellowship. It is a place for becoming, for discerning God's call in your life. Come— observe, question, participate, seek. This is a good place for you to be. You are welcome, just as you are. We meet at 8:30 p.m. in Linehan Chapel, whenever dorms are open.

Join the Choir! 7:30pm Sundays in the CFS Community Room

Come sing with us! No auditions! No long term contracts! Just an opportunity to make a joyful noise to the Lord. Contact Music Leaders Stephanie Preece (spreece2@naz.edu) or Eric Hauck (ehauck1@naz.edu) for more information.

We want YOU to take an active role in Protestant Worship!

Whether it's helping plan or prepare for worship, greeting people, preparing snack, singing in the choir or cleaning up, worship is more meaningful when you are involved. How is God calling YOU to be a leader in worship on the Nazareth campus this semester?

Want to Give Your SPIRIT Some Attention?

Why not meet with Protestant Chaplain, Rev. Alison Schmied (Alison). Since I am part-time, it is best to make an appointment or stop my office at GAC 164. Give me a call or send me an e-mail: aschmie1@naz.edu and 389-2306. I am on campus all day on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

“Would I Have Answered When You Called? (v.4)”

*SENDING FORTH

Please gather around the communion table for our closing blessing.

As the disciples walked with Christ so long ago,
walk with Christ in your hearts and spirits.
Feel the power of the Holy Spirit guiding your path.
Know the love of God which is poured out for you and rejoice.
Go in peace and may God’s peace go with you. AMEN.

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God our Creator, children all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now.
With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow;
to take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Whitney Merritt

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

(Jonah 3:1-5, 10 NRSV)

PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD’S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT READING

Salina Barnett

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news." As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea--for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

(Mark 1:14-20, NRSV)
