

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me;
 Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
 With God our Creator, children all are we;
 Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.
 Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now.
 With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
 to take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
 Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

EXODUS: A Group for Graduating Seniors

This group is designed to give graduating seniors spiritual tools to go forth into the wilderness beyond Nazareth. We will meet six times during your final semester at Nazareth, giving you an opportunity for fellowship and spiritual reflection with others who are facing the future beyond graduation with you. For more information, talk with Jamie Fazio or Alison Schmied.

*CALL TO WORSHIP (responsively)

Courtney Adams

Come to worship, and see the power of God.

We see Jesus in the beauty and power of holiness.

Jesus invites you not just to see but to be transformed, as well.

We are not worthy to approach the holiness of God.

None are worthy, but Jesus invites us.

We come to be transformed into the glory God desires for us.

*OPENING PRAYER (unison)

Olivia Abbott

Loving Lord of Life, we love you and give you thanks for sending your Son Jesus into the world. We pray now as we gather for worship that you reveal yourself anew to us as you did when you cast out demons and healed the sick. We want to know you fully so that we can make you fully known to the hurting world that exists all around us. May our worship be true and may your presence be manifest. In Jesus' name. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Salina Barnett

Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. (Isaiah 53:1-5 NRSV)

NEW TESTAMENT READING

Katie Ducett

They went to Capernaum; and when the Sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 'What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.' But Jesus rebuked him, saying, 'Be silent, and come out of him!' And the unclean spirit, throwing him into convulsions and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, 'What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.' At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee. (MARK 1:21-28, NRSV)

*SENDING FORTH

Meg Grant

All are invited to gather around the Communion Table for our closing blessing.

Sisters and brothers, let us follow our Lord, for he teaches as one with authority.

Even the unclean spirits recognize Jesus! We will follow where he leads.

Are you prepared to heal the sick and banish the demons of our day?

In Christ's name, we will be agents of healing, catalysts of hope and ambassadors of reconciliation. AMEN.
