

Short Plays for New Americans

Monday, September 28 at 4:00 p.m.
Room A-14 in the Nazareth College Arts Center
Free and open to the public.

Using theatre to help immigrants integrate into America, Judith Offer has developed a group of very short, funny plays that a classroom teacher can use with any combination of native-born Americans and new speakers of English. They can have fun, improve their English, learn drama/speaking skills and work together on something positive, all at the same time.

Judith Offer is a poet/playwright and a Nazareth College alumna.

The Arts Center Academic Events of the weeklong opening celebration are presented with the support of the Dean and Faculty of the Nazareth College of Arts and Sciences, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Center of Service Learning, the Honors Program, the President, the Vice-President for Academic Affairs, and the Arts Center faculty and staff.
