Undergraduate Final Exam Schedule

Fall 2009

Final examinations are being scheduled according to the beginning time of the course. Find the time block in which your course starts and that will tell you the appropriate final exam block. All courses offered in the same class time block will be scheduled into the same examination time block in the regular classroom, except for the “Special Arrangement” exams. Special arrangement exams will be arranged by the end of September 2009.

Consult the table below to determine when your final examination is scheduled. Faculty will announce whether or not there is a final exam in their course. Exams for evening classes are held during the assigned class time during final exam week.
